

2004 Society for Southeastern Social Psychologists Conference

- When: November 5-6, 2004 (Wiley Publishers sponsored reception the evening of November 5th; conference program on November 6th)
- Where: Clemson University, Madren Center
- Site Coordinators: Tom Britt and Robin Kowalski, Clemson University
- Program Coordinator: Beth Pontari, Furman University
- Symposia organized by Kurt Boniecki, Rick Hoyle, Jim McNulty, Lisa Thomson Ross, and Larry Sanna
- Topics include current research on the self, dynamics in close relationships, unpredictability and risk-taking, and stereotyping and prejudice.
- Keynote Speaker: Wendy Wood, Duke University: “The Power of Repetition: Habits in Daily Life”
- Special workshop for graduate students preparing to enter the academic job market
- Submitting a poster: Abstracts for poster submissions from faculty and students are welcome. Instructions for submitting abstracts for poster presentations can be found at the SSSP web site: <http://www.ssrc.msstate.edu/sssp/meeting.htm>. Deadline for abstract submission is September 20th.
- Conference Registration: Registration fees for the conference are $45 for faculty and $35 for students. To register for the conference send a check payable to Tom Britt (with SSSP in the memo line) for the appropriate amount to Tom Britt, Department of Psychology, 418 Brackett Hall, Clemson University, Clemson, SC 29634. After October 20th a late registration fee of $10 will be charged.
- Hotel Registration: SSSP has reserved rooms at the Madren Center for the nights of November 5th and 6th for $99 plus tax. You can book your hotel room by visiting the Madren Center’s website (www.clemson.edu/madren) or by phone (888) 654-9020. Please make your reservation early, so our rooms are not released!